LOCAL NEWS.

Attorney J. S. Sniffen, of Florence, was a visitor here during the past week.

A. C. Dellinger and Howard Livingston were visitors to the county seat during the past week.

Master Stephen Tillman, of Florence, is now assisting his father in his Globe furniture.

Don't miss the human valentine drawing at the Elks' dance—positively no blanks, every card draws a prize.

Richard Trevarthen was over from Mineral creek last week. He has been running the hoist at the Ray mine.

The Pinal mountains are covered with a generous coat of snow today, the first of any consequence that has fallen this winter.

There is quite a demand for cottages in Globe. Money invested in the erection of small dwelling houses would earn a good percentage.

Mr. Thos H. Harris will be enrolled as a soldier in the Salvation Army at the meeting on Sunday night at 8 o'clock.

"The apparel oft proclaims the man." Tom Davis sells clothes that fit and wear, and are correct in style. At the Kinney House.

James McCarty arrived Tuesday night from the Bryan copper mines. He gives a good report of that property, which is now producing considerable high grade ore.

C. H. Jones spent several days of the past week here, in the interest of Spruance, Stanley & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, of San Francisco. The firm is one of the best known on the coast, and is worthily represented by Mr. Jones.

Visitors to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado next summer will travel to the brink of that awe-inspiring chasm by rail. Forty-five miles of the track has been laid from Williams and the road will be open for business on March 1.

The brick cottage being erected by T. T. Davidson, on south Broad street, is nearing completion. It will be the handsomest residence in Globe, and will no doubt be the means of urging others who contemplate building to use brick and pattern after modern methods of architecture.

J. W. Boardman, the Payson merchant, was a visitor in Globe on Sunday, but remained hardly long enough to shake hands with his friends. He said that northern Gila county is enjoying a fair measure of prosperity, due largely to the activity in mining.

Good dressers should inspect the fine line of samples in suitings, trousseaus and overcoatings shown by Tom Davis, of Bridge, Davis & Co., Chicago, merchant tailors. Mr. Davis also represents the T. Davis shirt company, and carries the newest things in shirtings. Rooms at the Kinney House.

Rescue Lodge, No. 12, I. O. O. F., will give an invitation masquerade ball on the evening of February 22, Washington's birthday. The purpose of the lodge in making it an invitation affair is to exclude objectionable persons, and in order that no respectable person wishing to attend may be overlooked, the committee will issue invitations at the door; masks will be raised before invitations are issued. No lady need feel the least hesitancy about attending, as no objectionable person will be admitted. COMMITTEE.

Indian Agent Nicholson has stirred up strife with the livestock owners whose horses and cattle run on the reservation. They have been notified to appear at the agency on Friday, February 10, to make an accounting. A charge of $1 per head will be charged against them, which if not paid their stock will be rounded up and sold. There are probably 2,000 head of stock from Gila county grazing upon the reservation, mostly horses, and the owners are in a quandary what to do in the premises. Our opinion is that if the government wants to exclude stock from the reservation they had better fence it in.

Grand Lodge Meetings.

The two Grand lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias will meet in Globe May 7 and 14.

By an unanimous vote of the grand committee of I. O. O. F.'s, the date of holding their meeting, on the 3rd Monday in April, was changed to the first Monday in May, (7th), in order to bring the two grand bodies as close together as possible, and have a two weeks' gathering of visitors, and with the assistance of the citizens of Globe, which is so liberally offered, a good and happy time is assured. The public will be informed from time to time as to progress being made.

An Enjoyable Occasion.

The social given by the Christian Endeavor last Friday evening, at the residence of Mrs. W. C. Hodges, was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. By 9 o'clock quite a crowd had gathered and the commodious reception rooms were comfortably filled with smiling socialists.

The following short musical programme, which comprised some very beautiful vocal and instrumental selections, were excellently rendered:

Duett—Misses Oldfield.
"Listen to the Mocking Bird"—Prof. Charlton.
"When I'm Big I'll be a Soldier"—Miss Ethel Wroth.
"Oh, Promise Me"—Mrs. Frank Juliff.

Selection—Prof. Charlton.
The programme ended, games were in order and soon mirth and fun prevailed upon all to acknowledge their supremacy. Charades were indulged in and each side created much amusement in its attempts to outdo the opposing one. In the meantime, the piano was not idle, for Prof. Charlton had been called to the instrument so often that he finally decided with heroic fortitude that he had best remain there, with the result that for the remainder of the evening everyone was delighted with all kinds of sweet music.

Next came the refreshments—sandwiches, salads and cake, served with cocoa and coffee. But Friday was fast dying so that soon all were wending their way homeward.

Everything considered, the social was a decided success, due not only to the untiring efforts of the energetic social committee, but also to the class of young people who attended it, and who constitute the Christian Endeavor society. The society is also indebted to Mrs. Hodges, who proved an admirable hostess.

Ernest F. Kellner, Jr., was admitted as a partner to the firm of E. F. Kellner & Co., merchants and bankers, on February 1. For some time past Ernest has labored in the interest of the firm, is thoroughly acquainted with the business, and fully competent to fill the position to which he has been promoted. Ernest is a young man of excellent habits and business capacity, and with further training will add strength to the mercantile establishment of E. F. Kellner & Co., one of the oldest and most substantial concerns in Arizona.

The Old Dominion Commercial company have made a desirable change in the interior arrangement of their dry-goods department. The central shelves have been removed, a new floor laid and the counters lowered. The floor is to be covered with linoleum, and other improvements made which will add greatly to the appearance of the store. The Old Dominion Commercial company retains its position in the foremost rank of Globe's business institutions.

W. W. Brookner & Co., one of Globe's progressive mercantile firms, continues to set the pace for competitors. They have recently put in a cash carrier system of the latest pattern and which greatly facilitates business. They have also added a National cash register, which is far ahead of anything in that line introduced in Globe, and which registers a complete record of the daily transactions. W. W. Brookner & Co. have a very complete establishment, and are pleasant gentlemen to do business with.

OBITUARY.

Silas Tidwell, One of Globe's Oldest Citizens, Passes Away.

We regret to announce the death on Tuesday last, February 6, of Mr. Silas Tidwell, one of the oldest residents and most respected citizens of Globe.

On January 22 he was stricken by paralysis, after which life faded like the ebb of the tide, and he passed from life to eternity painlessly, like a child falling to sleep.

Silas Tidwell was born near Lawrenceville, Indiana, in 1835. When 22 years of age he moved, with his mother and younger brothers and sisters to Nebraska. There he engaged in the saw mill and flouring mill business. In 1865 he married Miss Sarah J. Neff, and in 1868 he moved with his wife and little daughter, and accompanied by M. W. Bremen, to south western New Mexico. In Silver City, New Mexico, he was interested in mining, being one of the original owners of the "76" mine, which produced over $200,000 while he was co-owner. He sold his interest in the mine to Mr. Bremen in 1877 and came to Gila county, locating at McMillen, since which time he has been a resident of this section.

Mr. Tidwell was a thorough mining and mill man, and in his long residence in New Mexico and Arizona he had gained the respect of all with whom he had made an acquaintance.

He leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. H. L. Higdon and Mrs. Ollie Haverly, to mourn his death, besides the numerous friends of the family.

The funeral took place this afternoon from the family residence and was largely attended.

The Belt extends condolence to the bereaved family.

J. J. Windmiller, financial agent of the Copper Hill mines, is here this week to settle the monthly accounts. The operations of the company are very satisfactory. Regular ore shipments of ten tons per week are being made and development work is progressing.

Methodist Episcopal church, near the court house; E. O. McIntire, pastor. From Jan. 1st till April 1st, meetings as follows:—Public worship and sermon, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 2 p. m.; young people's devotional meeting, 6:30 p. m. Midweek prayermeeting Thursday night at 7:30. Aftermeetings for prayer and conference both morning and evening of each Sunday. The pastor will visit the sick and attend funerals. Residence, parsonage, opposite the church.

Catholic Services in Globe.

High mass and instructions in Spanish and English, Sunday, the 21st, 28th, and February 4, at 10 a. m. Evening devotions and benediction of the blessed sacrament at 6 p. m. Work day mass at 7:30 a. m. All non-Catholics and Catholics are cordially invited.

T. B. Parks and family, W. R. Dodson and family, E. C. Hilderbrand and family and C. A. Park and wife, seventeen in number, and hailing from the Indian Territory, arrived in Globe last Tuesday and will make this section of Arizona their future home.

Last Thursday evening at the residence of N. Hackney William McCuen and Miss Rosa Reynolds were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. McIntire officiating.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." At Hitchcock's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded. au1
